Race numbers are non-transferable and may only be worn by the participant to whom it is assigned. Please see RULES OF COMPETITION for penalties.

CANCELLATION POLICY/REFUNDS

Race officials want to provide a safe race environment for all athletes. Once we receive and accept your registration, you will not receive a refund if you cannot participate. Should there be a time that it is determined to be unsafe to start a race or proceed with the race, once it has started, the following policy may be enforced:

- If weather or other conditions present a danger to athletes, race officials maintain the right to cancel or modify the race.
- Extreme weather conditions will be recognized as “an act of god” and will not result in the refunding of race registration fees or future race credits.
- Public safety officials and medical authorities will be consulted prior to any race cancellation or modification. Should City of Little Rock officials, which are beyond the race’s control, impact race official’s ability to conduct the event, the same refund policy will be in effect.
- Race officials assert that each athlete assumes a personal responsibility when entering an athletic event and accepts the potential risks. Creep ‘N Crawl encourages all athletes to take all precautions and cooperate with directives given during the race by event personnel.
- Unfortunately, almost all race related expenses will have been incurred prior to the actual race. Should the race be forced to modify the course or cancel the race, the financial impact on the race would not be any different than if the race was held in its entirety. Thus, refunding of registration fees would devastate the financial future of the race.

WEATHER POLICY

Races are held rain, shine, sprinkles or locust and will not be cancelled except for cases of severe weather. Race officials will evaluate weather conditions and make an appropriate determination regarding initiation, cancellation, or continuation of the race. Such determination shall be based on prudent consideration by race officials in conjunction with local law enforcement and/or other officials. In the event of inclement weather or unforeseen circumstances, race officials reserve the right to alter, cancel, or eliminate any/all portions of the race or to make any modification concerning the time, length, or nature of the event.

EVENT ALERT SYSTEM

A color-coded alert system will communicate the status of course conditions to participants leading up to and on race day. Color coded signs will be placed at each aid station on the course. The levels range from low to extreme based on a number of factors, including weather conditions. All participants are advised to familiarize themselves with the event alert system prior to race day. Please remain alert for directions from race officials/course volunteers and take precautions to properly prepare for a variety of weather conditions on race day.

ALERT LEVEL	EVENT CONDITIONS	ACTIONS RECOMMENDED
MODERATE	Less than ideal conditions	Slow down, prepare for the possibility of worsening conditions
HIGH	Potentially dangerous conditions	Slow down, observe course changes, follow event official instructions, consider stopping
EXTREME	Event Cancelled. Extreme and dangerous conditions	Participation stopped, follow all event official instructions

RULES OF COMPETITION

The most important thing is to have fun and enjoy your race, but we do have some basic rules that will ensure that things run smoothly.

- Race officials reserve the right to remove an athlete from the course. If, in their best judgment, it is possible that serious or fatal injury could result from continued participation.
- Non-registered individuals pacing is prohibited and may result in disqualification.
- Bandits/non registered individuals are prohibited and will be removed from the course.
- No pets, roller blades, skateboards, bikes, or strollers are allowed in any of the races.
- Race numbers must be worn on the front outer most layer of clothing or costume and must be visible at all times.

- Transferring of race number to someone else is not allowed. While the practice of giving your race number to someone else, may seem harmless, it can result in serious consequences to all individuals involved. It's an issue of false identity and a liability issue.

Why?

- Your race number is attached to your identity. If an emergency occurs that requires medical attention or a race official must identify an athlete, we need to have the correct information.
- Awards could also be impacted.
- If race organizers identify an individual who has given their race number to another person, it will result in disqualification and a minimum two-year ban for all individuals for any race conducted by the Little Rock Marathon.
